Guidelines for contributions

Through its numerous papers, EuroCité promotes citizenship participation in the European debate and aims at providing a fertile thinking ground for political leaders. The articles are meant to inform non-specialist readers, produce a critical analysis, and when possible practical proposals.

Most articles' length comes between 1,500 and 2,500 words.

1. Your paper is to engage with one of EuroCité's following main topics:

European Left	Political Europe	Economy and Society	Europe in the world

2. Your paper is to adapt to one of these structures:

Tribune (< 1,500 words)	Article (< 2,500 words)	Note (< 5,000 words)	Report (> 5,000 words)

3. EuroCité's formatting rules:

Headings, sub-headings & paragraphs is helpful	Presentation of the author (max. 30 words); Date & place of writing	Referencing is mandatory for quotes: footnotes and/or html links	Referencing is mandatory for pictures: which must be royalty-free

Heading

Sub-heading

Times New Roman, s. 12, 1.5 line spacing

(Picture: […][2] Source: Flickr, License Creative Commons)

Xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx
Xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx.[2]

2. AUTHOR, « Article », Book, Publisher, year of issue, page(s)

4. Steps before publication:

- The article will be proof read in accordance with EuroCité's publishing rules.

- The author's consent by email, following the dispatch of the finished proofs by the reading committee, is valid to permit the publication.

- The authors retain all rights on their papers.

EuroCité retains the right to not publish any paper which does not comply with the above criteria, or with the spirit of its manifesto*.*